1 A TV drama in China, To the Wonder, has made a place called Altay very famous. Altay is located in the Xinjiang Uygur Autonomous Region. The drama is based on a book by Li Juan and tells the story of a girl named Li Wenxiu. She went back to her hometown in Altay because things didn't go well for her in the city. There, she found happiness and love.

2 The drama shows beautiful green fields and people living simple, happy lives. ▲ A lady named Zhang Chen from Beijing said, "It looks like a magical place. I would love to see such pretty sights. My husband and I are going to Xinjiang this summer, and we want to go to Altay."

3 Since the drama came out, more people have wanted to go to Altay. A company that helps people book trips says that more people are buying plane tickets and booking hotel rooms there. It's been a boost to local businesses too. The shopkeepers and restaurant owners are excited to welcome visitors and share their culture.

4 This isn't the first time that a TV drama has made a place famous. Another drama, Meet Yourself, made people want to visit Dali in Yunnan. Experts say that by working with the beautiful nature and culture of places like Altay, local governments and travel companies can make visits to these places even more enjoyable for visitors. They can create special tours and activities that allow visitors to experience the best of what Altay has to offer, such as horse riding on the grasslands and learning about the traditional crafts (工艺) of local people.
